

Forest 500: Retailer Rankings on Cattle (Beef & Leather), 2016

Utilizing the Forest 500 methodology, this scorecard ranks 28 retail companies on the following: (1) forest policy, (2) commodity specific policies for cattle and palm oil (palm oil was selected for comparative analysis), (3) operations and reporting, and (4) transparency. By objectively identifying and ranking retailers that have large-scale influence over beef and/or leather supply chains, the Forest 500 holds companies accountable for their actions. Only two companies (Marks and Spencer and Walmart), representing about 7 percent of the group, achieved a ranking of 4 or 5 for cattle, whereas for palm oil, 15 companies, representing over 50 percent of the group achieved a ranking of 4 or 5. The results from this analysis indicate shortcomings and gaps in retailers' commitments on beef and leather, highlighting that greater action is required to achieve zero deforestation cattle supply chains.

●●●●● Strong policy in place to reduce impact on forests
○●●●○ No policy in place to reduce impact on forests
